Fourth Annual Bay Life Art Exhibit is Set for February 25

Tierra Verde, FL - Tampa Bay Watch plans their Fourth Annual Bay Life Art Exhibit on Saturday, February 25 featuring eight distinguished Florida wildlife artists. It is a collaborative art exhibit and sale at the Tampa Bay Watch Marine and Education Center which is free and open to the public on Saturday, February 25, 10am-2pm. Meet the artists and enjoy a live informational pastel demonstration by one of the Bay Life artists. Additionally there will be kids' activities by the Morean Arts Center, so bring the entire family! Artists generously donate a portion of all proceeds from art sales to support the mission of Tampa Bay Watch.

The 4th Annual Bay Life Art Exhibit will feature Karen Baker, Nathan Beard, Sandra Williams, Bill Castleman, Melissa Nece, Debra Weible, Bill Renc and Joyce Ely Walker, who will show a wide spectrum of their work that reflects the beauty and complexity of our natural surroundings. The event takes place in the Tampa Bay Watch Community Room in Tierra Verde, a perfect setting to appreciate the beauty of Tampa Bay.

The exhibit is free and open to the public and will take place at the Tampa Bay Watch Marine & Education Center, 3000 Pinellas Bayway South, Tierra Verde, FL 33715. Tampa Bay Watch is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to the protection and restoration of the Tampa Bay estuary through scientific and educational programs.

To learn more about the event, go to tampabaywatch.org or contact Michelle Tepper, Tampa Bay Watch Special Events Coordinator, at 727-867-8166 ext. 234, or mtepper@tampabaywatch.org. This event is sponsored by Sabal Trust, Great Bay Distributors, Morean Arts Center, The Island Grille and Raw Bar, Alden Suites, Resort Realty / Resort Rentals and Larry Weiner and Yvonne Grimm.
